Hue, ancient capital, centre of arts and literature, cultural point of focus for the traditional way of life very much alive in Vietnam today.

Home to Vietnam's Emperors', a centuries' old legacy has been left making Hue the premiere attraction in Vietnam. Centred around the Imperial Citadel enchanting boat trips along the Huong (Perfume) River await discovery of tropical embedded tombs, pagodas and a rich architectural heritage.

Century Riverside Hotel Hue, located on the banks of the Huong (Perfume) River, opens up a city of unmatched tranquility and a true taste of provincial Vietnam. An international 3 star standard hotel of 147 guest rooms and suites offering spectacular river front views.

Facilities include satellite Star TV traditional Massage, Cafe & Bar, Karaoke, Swimming Pool, Tennis Courts and recreational facilities.

The Century is renowned for its Hue delicacies and authentic Vietnamese food. Traditional dancing and songs making a meal experience few will forget. For the evening what better than fresh seafood barbecues over-looking the Huong River.

For guests looking for a taste of the Orient of the past, the Century's "Imperial Feast" is not to be missed. Period costumes and music, the emperors ten course feast and an evening filled with fabulous memories.
